

United States District Court
Eastern District of Michigan
Southern Division

The United States of America,

Criminal No. 17-20183

Plaintiff,

Hon. Mark A. Goldsmith

v.

D-4 Terry Pruitt a/k/a "T,"

Defendant.

Stipulation for Excludable Delay and to Set Dates

The United States of America and Defendant agree that there is good cause to adjourn the detention hearing and completion of arraignment on the indictment in this case scheduled for April 6, 2017, to a new date of April 25, 2017. See 18 U.S.C. §3161. This extension of time is necessary to allow the parties to investigate the facts of this case further and because Defendant's pre-existing physical condition prevented him from appearing in Court on an earlier date and, and because the failure to grant such a continuance would unreasonably deny the defendant continuity of counsel and the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. Defendant concurs in this request and agrees that it is in his best interest.

The parties stipulate and agree that this stipulation and any order resulting therefrom shall not affect any previous order of pretrial detention or pretrial release.

The period of delay between April 6, 2017 to April 25, 2017 should be excluded from computing the time within which a trial must begin for the reasons set forth herein, and because the ends of justice served by such continuance outweigh the interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. §3161.
